PUBLISHERS' PREFACE

Since "Rightly Dividing the Word of Truth" was first published by its author, more than thirty years ago, its circulation has been very large, and the blessing of God upon its ministry very remarkable.

Shortly before the author went to be with the Lord, in 1921, he learned that without his knowledge or consent, the current editions of the book had in many cases been greatly changed from the edition he had originally prepared and published. He therefore requested the Philadelphia School of the Bible, of which he was Founder and President, to put out a new issue, conforming to the original plates. The present edition is the result.

RIGHTLY DIVIDING THE WORD OF TRUTH

INTRODUCTION

In the second chapter of Second Timothy the believer is presented in seven characters. He is called a son, v. 1; a soldier, v. 3; an athlete, v. 5; a husbandman, v. 6; a workman, v. 15; a vessel, v. 21; and a servant, v. 24.

With each of these characters there is a suited exhortation. As a son, Timothy is exhorted to be strong in grace. Grace goes with sonship, just as law goes with servitude—as we learn from Galatians. Then, as a soldier, Timothy is exhorted to endure hardness, and to avoid worldly entanglements; these are right elements of good soldiership. As a vessel, he is to be cleansed, separated; as a servant, gentle, patient, meek, and so of each of these seven aspects of his life as a Christian.

In verse 15 he is told what is required of him as a workman:

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."
The Word of Truth, then, has right Divisions, and it must be evident that, as one cannot be “a workman that needeth not to be ashamed” without observing them, so any study of that Word which ignores those Divisions must be in large measure profitless and confusing. Many Christians freely confess that they find the study of the Bible weary work. More find it so, who are ashamed to make the confession.

The purpose of this Tract is to indicate the more important Divisions of the Word of Truth. That this could not be fully done short of a complete analysis of the Bible is, of course, evident; but it is believed that enough is given to enable the diligent student to perceive the greater outlines of truth, and something of the ordered beauty and symmetry of that Word of God which, to the natural mind, seems a mere confusion of inharmonious and conflicting ideas.

The student is earnestly exhorted not to receive a single doctrine upon the authority of this Tract, but, like the noble Bereans (Acts 17: 11), to search the SCRIPTURES daily whether these things are so. No appeal is made to human authority. The anointing which ye have received of HIM abideth in you, and ye need not that any MAN teach you. 1 John 2: 27.

WHOEVER reads the Bible with any attention cannot fail to perceive that more than half of its contents relate to one nation—the Israelites. He perceives, too, that they have a very distinct place in the dealings and counsels of God. Separated from the mass of mankind, they are taken into covenant with Jehovah, who gives them specific promises not given to any other nation. Their history alone is told in Old Testament narrative and prophecy—other nations being mentioned only as they touch the Jew.

It appears, also, that all the communications of Jehovah to Israel as a nation relate to the Earth. If faithful and obedient, the nation is promised earthly greatness, riches, and power; if unfaithful and disobedient, it is to be scattered “among all people, from one end of the earth even to the other.” Deut. 28: 64. Even the promise of the Messiah is of blessing to “all the families of the Earth.”

Continuing his researches, the student finds large mention in Scripture of another distinct body, which is called the Church. This body, also, has a peculiar relation to God, and, like Israel, has received from Him specific promises. But there similarity ends, and the most striking contrast begins. Instead of being formed of the natural descendants of Abraham alone, it is a body in which the distinction of Jew and Gentile is lost. Instead of the relation being one of mere covenant, it is one of birth. Instead of obedience bringing the reward of earthly greatness and wealth, the Church is taught to be content with food and raiment, and to expect persecution and hatred, and it is perceived that just as distinctly as Israel stands connected with temporal and earthly things, so distinctly does the Church stand connected with spiritual and heavenly things.

Further, Scripture shows him that neither Israel nor the Church always existed. Each had a recorded beginning. That of Israel he finds in the call of Abram. Looking then for the birth of the Church he finds (contrary, perhaps, to his expectations, for he has probably been taught that Adam and the Patriarchs are in the Church) that it certainly did not exist before, nor during, the earth-life of Christ, for he finds Him speaking of His Church as yet future when He says (Matt. 16: 18), “Upon this rock I WILL build my Church.”

Not “have built,” nor “am building,” but “WILL build.”

He finds, too, from Eph. 3: 5-10, that the Church is not once mentioned in Old Testament prophecy, but was, in those ages, a mystery “hid in God.” Scripturally, he finds the birth of the Church in Acts 2, and the termination of its career on the earth in 1 Thes. 4.

The student also finds, in the scriptural division of the race, another class, rarely mentioned, and distinguished in every respect from either Israel or the Church—the Gentiles. The comparative position of the Jew, the Gentile, and the Church may be briefly seen in the following scriptures:

Comparing, then, what is said in Scripture concerning Israel and the Church, he finds that in origin, calling, promise, worship, principles of conduct, and future destiny—all is contrast.

Calling.

Israel.

Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy Church.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling. Hebrews 3: 1.
For our citizenship is in heaven. Phil. 3:20. R. V.

And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. Matt. 8:20.

To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. 1 Pet. 1:4.

Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place. 1 Cor. 4:11.

And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! Mark 10:23.

Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? James 2:5.

The Lord shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways. Deut. 28:7.

And the Lord shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath. Deut. 28:13.

Of course it is not meant that a godly Jew did not, at death, go to Heaven. The distinction is that the incentive to godliness in his case was earthly reward, not heavenly. It should be needless to say that, in this Dispensation, neither Jew nor Gentile can be saved otherwise than by the exercise of that faith on the Lord Jesus Christ whereby both are born again (John 3:3, 16) and are baptized into that “one body” (1 Cor. 12:13) which is “the Church” (Eph. 1:22, 23). In the Church the distinction of Jew and Gentile disappears. (1 Cor. 12:13, Gal. 3:28, Eph. 2:14, Eph. 2:11, “in time past Gentiles.” 1 Cor. 12:2, R. V., “when ye were Gentiles.”)

The contrast between Israel and the Church further appears in the rules given for the Conduct of each. Compare:
When the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee . . . thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them: thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them.

Deut. 7: 1, 2.

Also,

In the appointments for Worship we still find contrast. Israel could worship in but one place, and at a distance from God—only approaching Him through a priest. The Church worships wherever two or three are gathered, has boldness to enter into the holiest, and is composed of priests. Compare:

Lev. 17: 8, 9 with Matt. 18: 20.
Num. 3: 10 “ 1 Pet. 2: 5.

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you. Matt. 5: 44.

Being reviled, we bless; being reviled, we suffer it; being defamed, we inter­ treat. 1 Cor. 4: 12, 13.

But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. Matt. 5: 39.

In the predictions concerning the Future of Israel and the Church the distinction is still more startling. The Church will be taken away from the earth entirely, but restored Israel is yet to have her greatest earthly splendor and power. See,

The Church.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. John 14: 2, 3.

For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 1 Thess. 4: 15-17.

For our citizenship is in heaven; from whence also we wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall fashion anew the body of our humiliation, that it may be conformed to the body of his glory. Phil. 3: 20, 21. R. V.
Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. 1 John 3:2.

Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. Rev. 19:7-9.

Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. Rev. 20:6.

Israel.

And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name Jesus. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Luke 1:31-33.

(Of these seven promises to Mary five have already been literally fulfilled. By what rule of interpretation are we authorized to say that the remaining two will not be so fulfilled?)

Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, After this I will return and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up. Acts 15:14-16.

I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy. For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree; how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob. Romans 11: 1, 11, 24-26.

And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people. . . .

And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. Isa. 11: 11, 12.

For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob. Isa. 14: 1. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; but, The LORD liveth that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into the land that I gave unto their fathers. Jer. 16: 14, 15. Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Jer. 23: 5, 6.

Behold, I will gather them out of all countries whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. Jer. 32: 37, 38.

Sing, 0 daughter of Zion; shout, 0 Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, 0 daughter of Jerusalem. The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the King of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more. Zeph. 3: 14, 15.

It may safely be said that the Judaizing of the Church has done more to hinder her progress, pervert her mission, and destroy her spirituality, than all other causes combined. Instead of pursuing her appointed path of separation, persecution, world-hatred, poverty, and non-resistance, she has used Jewish Scripture to justify her in lowering her purpose to the civilization of the world, the acquisition of wealth, the use of an imposing ritual, the erection of magnificent churches, the invocation of God's blessing upon the conflicts of armies, and the division of an equal brotherhood into "clergy" and "laity."
THE SEVEN DISPENSATIONS

THE Scriptures divide time, by which is meant the entire period from the creation of Adam to the "new heaven and a new earth" of Rev. 21: 1, into seven unequal periods, called, usually, "dispensations" (Eph. 3: 2), although these periods are also called "ages" (Eph. 2: 7) and "days"—as, "day of the Lord," etc.

These periods are marked off in Scripture by some change in God's method of dealing with mankind, or a portion of mankind, in respect of the two questions of sin and of man's responsibility. Each of the Dispensations may be regarded as a new test of the natural man, and each ends in judgment—marking his utter failure.

Five of these Dispensations, or periods of time, have been fulfilled; we are living in the sixth, probably toward its close, and have before us the seventh, and last—the millennium.

1. MAN INNOCENT.—This dispensation extends from the creation of Adam, Gen. 2: 7, to the Expulsion. Adam, created innocent, and ignorant of good and evil, was placed in the garden of Eden with his wife, Eve, and put under responsibility to abstain from the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. The Dispensation of Innocence resulted in the first and, in its far-reaching effects, the most disastrous of the failures of the natural man, and was closed by judgment—"So He drove out the man." See,

2. MAN UNDER CONSCIENCE.—By the Fall Adam and Eve acquired, and transmitted to the race, the knowledge of good and evil. This gave conscience a basis for right moral judgment, and hence the race came under this measure of responsibility—to do good and eschew evil. The result of the Dispensation of Conscience was that "all flesh had corrupted his way on the earth;" that "the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually;" and God closed the second testing of the natural man with judgment—the Flood. See,

3. MAN IN AUTHORITY OVER THE EARTH.—Out of the fearful judgment of the Flood God saved eight persons to whom, after the waters were assuaged, He gave the purified earth with ample power to govern it. This, Noah and his descendants were responsible to do. The Dispensation of Human Government resulted, upon the plain of Shinar, in the impious attempt to become independent of God and closed in judgment—the Confusion of Tongues. See,

4. MAN UNDER PROMISE.—Out of the dispersed descendants of the builders of Babel God now calls one man, Abram, with whom He enters into covenant. Some of the promises to Abram and his descendants were purely gracious and unconditional. These either have been, or will yet be, literally fulfilled. Other promises were conditional upon the faithfulness and obedience of the Israelites. Every one of these conditions was violated, and the Dispensation of Promise resulted in the utter failure of Israel, and closed in the judgment of the Egyptian Bondage.

The book of Genesis, which opens with the sublime words, “In the beginning God created,” closes with, “in a coffin in Egypt.”

5. MAN UNDER LAW.—Again the grace of God came to the help of helpless man and redeemed the chosen people out of the hand of the oppressor. In the Wilderness of Sinai He proposed to them the Covenant of Law. Instead of humbly pleading for a continued relation of grace, they presumptuously answered: “All that the Lord hath spoken we will do.” The history of Israel in the Wilderness and in the Land is one long record of flagrant, persistent violation of the Law, and at last, after multiplied warnings, God closed the testing of man by law in judgment, and first Israel, and then Judah, were driven out of the Land into a dispersion which still continues. A feeble remnant returned under Ezra and Nehemiah, of which, in due time, Christ came: “Born of a woman—made under the law.” Him both Jews and Gentiles conspired to crucify. See,

6. MAN UNDER GRACE.—The sacrificial death of the Lord Jesus Christ introduced the dispensation of pure grace—which means undeserved favor, or God giving righteousness, instead of God requiring righteousness, as under Law.

Salvation, perfect and eternal, is now freely offered to Jew and Gentile upon the one condition of faith.

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. John 6: 29.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. John 6: 47.
Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and cometh not into judgment, but hath passed out of death into life. John 5:24. R.V.

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish. John 10:27, 28.

For by grace have ye been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, that no man should glory. Eph. 2:8, 9. R.V.

The predicted result of this testing of man under grace is, judgment upon an unbelieving world and an apostate Church.

The first event in the closing of this dispensation will be the descent of the Lord from Heaven, when sleeping saints will be raised and, together with believers then living, caught up “to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.” 1 Thess. 4:16, 17.

Then follows the brief period called “the great tribulation.”

After this occurs the personal return of the Lord to the earth in power and great glory, and the judgments which introduce the seventh, and last dispensation.

7. MAN UNDER THE PERSONAL REIGN OF CHRIST.—After the purifying judgments which attended the personal return of Christ to the Earth, He will reign over restored Israel and over the earth for one thousand years. This is the period commonly called the Millennium. The seat of His power will be Jerusalem, and the saints, including the saved of the Dispensation of Grace, viz., the Church, will be associated with Him in His glory. See,

But when Satan is “loosed a little season” he finds the natural heart as prone to evil as ever, and easily gathers the nations to battle against the Lord and His saints, and this last dispensation closes, like all the others, in judgment. The “great white throne” is set, the wicked dead are raised and finally judged, and then come the “new heaven and a new earth”—eternity begun.

Rev. 20:3, 7-15. Rev. 21 and 22.
THE TWO ADVENTS

Key text, 1 Pet. 1: 11

WHOEVER carefully considers Old Testament prophecies must be struck by two contrasting, and seemingly contradictory, lines of prediction concerning the coming Messiah. One body of prediction speaks of Him as coming in weakness and humiliation, a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief, a root out of dry ground, having no form nor comeliness, nor beauty that He should be desired. His visage is to be marred, His hands and feet pierced, He is to be forsaken of man and of God, and to make His grave with the wicked. See,

Isa. 53 (entire chapter).
Isa. 7: 14.

The other line of prophecy foretells a splendid and resistless Sovereign, purging the earth with awful judgments, regathering dispersed Israel, restoring the throne of David in more than Solomon's splendor, and introducing a reign of profound peace and perfect righteousness. See, as examples,

Isa. 11: 1, 2, 10-12.
Deut. 30: 1-7.
Dan. 7: 13, 14.
Micah 5: 2.

In due time the fulfllment of Messianic prophecy began with the birth of the Virgin's Son according to Isaiah, in Bethlehem according to Micah, and proceeded with perfect literalness unto the full accomplishment of every prediction of Messiah's humiliation. But the Jews would not receive their King, "meek and sitting upon an ass and a colt the foal of an ass," but crucified Him:

Zech. 9: 9, with Matt. 21: 1-5, etc. John 19: 15, 16.

But we must not conclude that the wickedness of man has baffled the deliberate purpose of God, for His counsels include a second advent of his Son, when the predictions concerning Messiah's earthly glory will receive the same precise and literal fulfilment as did those which concerned his earthly sufferings.

Hosea 3: 4, 5.

The Jews were slow of heart to believe ALL that the prophets had spoken concerning the sufferings of their Messiah; we are slow of heart to believe ALL that they have spoken concerning HIS GLORY. Surely the greater reproach is ours, for it ought to be easier to believe that the Son of God would come "in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory," than that He would come as the Babe of Bethlehem, and the Carpenter of Nazareth. Indeed, we believe the latter because it has happened, not because the prophets foretold it, and it is time we ceased to reproach the Jews for their unbelief. If it be asked how they could possibly be blinded to the evident meaning of so many and such unequivocal predictions, the answer is, that they were blinded in exactly the same way that many Christians are blinded to the equally evident meaning of a far greater number of predictions of His earthly GLORY, viz., by the process of "spiritualizing" Scripture. In other words, the ancient scribes told the people that the prophecies of Messiah's sufferings were not to be interpreted literally, just as some modern scribes are telling the people that the prophecies of Messiah's earthly glory are not to be literally interpreted.

But the second advent is a promise to the Church as well as to the Jew.

Among the last words of comfort and exhortation addressed by our Lord to His perplexed and sorrowing disciples before He accomplished the sacrifice of the cross were these:

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. John 14:1-3.

Here the Lord speaks of His coming again in precisely the same terms as of His departure. The latter was, we know, personal and bodily. If we say that the former is impersonal and "spiritual," surely we ought to be constrained to such a forced interpretation of simple language by the most imperative and unqualified Scripture elsewhere. But no such passages exist.

But we are not left to doubt upon this vital point, nor to the conclusions of reason, however irresistible.

In the very moment of our Lord's disappearance from the sight of His disciples, "two men stood by them in white apparel;"

Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? THIS SAME JESUS, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in LIKE MANNER as ye have seen him go into heaven. Acts 1:11.

To the same purport is 1 Thess. 4:16, 17.

FOR THE LORD HIMSELF shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

For our citizenship is in heaven; from whence also we wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall fashion anew the body of our humiliation, that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working whereby he is able even to subject all things unto himself. Phil. 3: 20, 21. R. V.

Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. 1 John 3: 2.

And behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Rev. 22: 12.

For this “blessed hope” we are taught to “watch” (Mark 13: 33, 35, 37; Matt. 24: 42; 25: 13); “wait,” 1 Thess. 1: 10; and be “ready,” Matt. 24: 44. The last prayer in the Bible is one for Christ’s speedy return. Rev. 22: 20.

By these Scriptures it abundantly appears that the second advent will be personal and bodily; that, therefore, it does not mean the death of the believer, nor the destruction of Jerusalem, nor the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, nor the gradual diffusion of Christianity; but that it is the “blessed hope” of the Church, the time when sleeping saints will be raised, and, together with saints then living, who will be “changed” (1 Cor. 15: 51, 52), caught up to meet the Lord; the time when we who are now the sons of God will be like Him, and when faithful saints will be rewarded for works done after salvation, for His name’s sake.

The following Scriptures will further bring into view the contrast between the two advents of our Lord. Compare:

First Advent.
And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. Luke 2: 7.

Second Advent.
And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven; and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory. Matt. 24: 30.

So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time, without sin, unto salvation. Heb. 9: 28.
First Advent.

For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. Luke 19: 10.

For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. John 3: 17.

Second Advent.

And to you who are troubled, rest with us; when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Thess. 1: 7, 8.

Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. Acts 17: 31.

The student may multiply these contrasts almost indefinitely. Enough, however, has been adduced to show that both the promises to Israel and to the Church imperatively require a return of our Lord to the earth.

[NOTE.—It may be helpful to beginners in Bible study to consider, briefly, the various theories which are here and there put forward to oppose the Scriptural doctrine of the personal and corporeal second advent of Christ.

It will, of course, be clearly understood that the Scriptures which speak of His visible and bodily appearing at the close of this Dispensation must be distinguished from those which refer to His Divine attributes of omniscience and omnipresence, by virtue of which He knows all things and is always present everywhere, and of which such passages as Matt. 18: 20 and Matt. 28: 20 are examples.

It is blessedly true that, in this sense, He is with us always, even unto the end of the age.

But the "MAN CHRIST JESUS" is now personally and corporeally at the right hand of God.

But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and JESUS STANDING ON THE RIGHT HAND OF GOD, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Acts 7: 56, 56.

. . . when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down ON THE RIGHT HAND OF THE MAJESTY ON HIGH. Heb. 1: 3.

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, WHERE CHRIST SITTETH ON THE RIGHT HAND OF GOD. Col. 3: 1.

To illustrate: During the Franco-Prussian war, Von Moltke, by his genius and skill, and by a network of telegraph wires, was really present on every battlefield, though visibly and personally present in his office in Berlin. Later in the war he joined the army before Paris, after which his actual and visible presence was there. So our Lord, by virtue of His divine attributes, is really present with His Church now, but He will be visibly and personally upon the earth at His second coming.

1. The prophecies concerning the return of the Lord were not fulfilled by the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, nor by His manifestation in powerful revivals and happy prayer-meetings, because:

(1) This interpretation practically nullifies the doctrine of the Trinity—making the Holy Spirit only a manifestation of Christ.

(2) In Christ’s promise of the descent of the Spirit He distinctly speaks of Him as “ANOTHER Comforter” (John 14: 16), and in John 16: 7 Christ says: “If I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart I will send Him unto you.”

(3) The inspired writers of Acts, the Epistles, and The Revelation, mention the return of the Lord more than one hundred and fifty times after Pentecost, and always as yet future.

(4) None of the events predicted to accompany the Second Advent of Christ occurred at Pentecost. These are: The resurrection of sleeping saints (1 Cor. 15: 22, 23; 1 Thess. 4: 13-16); the “change” of living believers, by which they “put on incorruption”—their “vile bodies” being “fashioned like unto His glorious body,” and their catching up to meet the Lord in the air (1 Cor. 15: 51-53; 1 Thess. 4: 17; Phil. 3: 20, 21); and the mourning of all the tribes of the earth because of the visible coming of the Son of man in power and great glory (Matt. 24: 29, 30; Rev. 1: 7).

These are the phenomena associated with the event of our Lord’s return. When He comes, these phenomena will be present. Not one of these things occurred at Pentecost, nor in any other manifestation of the Holy Spirit.

2. The conversion of a sinner is not the coming of the Lord. One would think this theory too puerile to be seriously put forth as a sufficient explanation of prophecies so numerous and circumstantial.

(1) According to Scripture this is exactly reversed. Conversion is the coming of a sinner to Christ, not the coming of Christ to a sinner. Matt. 11: 28; John 5: 40; John 7: 37; John 6: 37.
None of the events above enumerated, predicted to occur when the Lord returns, accompany the conversion of a sinner.

3. The death of a Christian is not the coming of Christ.

(1) When the disciples understood the Lord to say that one of their number should tarry till He came, the saying went abroad among them that “that disciple should not die.” John 21:22-24.

(2) The inspired writers always refer to a believer’s death as his departure. In not one instance is the coming of the Lord connected with a Christian’s death. See Phil. 1:23; 2 Tim. 4:6; 2 Cor. 5:8. Dying Stephen saw the heavens opened, and the Son of man—not coming, but “STANDING on the right hand of God.” Acts 7:55, 56.

(3) None of the events predicted to occur when the Lord returns accompany the death of a Christian.

4. The destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans was not the second coming of Christ.

(1) In Matt. 24, and Luke 21, three events are foretold: The destruction of the temple, the coming of the Lord, and the end of the world (age). See Matt. 24:8. It was the needless confusion of these perfectly distinct things which gave rise to the notion that the fulfilment of one was the fulfilment of all.

(3) None of the events predicted to occur when the Lord returns occurred when Jerusalem was destroyed. See 1 Thess. 4:14-17; Matt. 24:29-31; Matt. 25:31,32, etc.

5. The diffusion of Christianity is not the second coming of Christ.

(1) The diffusion of Christianity is gradual, whereas the Scriptures refer to the return of the Lord as sudden and unexpected. Matt. 24:27, 36-42, 44, 50; 2 Pet. 3:10; Rev. 3:3.

(2) The diffusion of Christianity is a process; Scripture invariably speaks of the return of the Lord as an event.

(3) The diffusion of Christianity brings salvation to the wicked, whereas the coming of Christ is said to bring, not salvation, but "sudden destruction." 1 Thess. 5: 2, 3; 2 Thess. 1: 7-10; Matt. 25: 31-46.

6. But these alleged explanations and theories, though widespread, do not appear in the books of reputable theologians of any school or denomination, nor are they maintained by a single exegete of universally recognized eminence. These all maintain the bodily and visible second coming of Christ.

It is, however, sometimes said that this coming cannot occur until after the world has been converted by the preaching of the Gospel, and has submitted to the spiritual reign of Christ for one thousand years. It is submitted that this view is wholly erroneous, because:

(2) Scripture describes the whole course of this dispensation from the beginning to the end in such terms as to exclude the possibility of a converted world in any part of it. Matt. 13: 36-43, 47-50; Matt. 25: 1-10; 1 Tim. 4: 1; 2 Tim. 3: 1-9; 4: 3, 4; 2 Pet. 3: 3, 4; Jude 17-19.

(3) The purpose of God in this dispensation is declared to be, not the conversion of the world, but to "gather out of the Gentiles a people for His name." After this He "will return," and then, and not before, will the world be converted. See Acts 15: 14-17; Matt. 24: 14 ("for a witness"); Rom. 1: 5 ("among," not "of," all nations); Rom. 11: 14 ("some," not "all"); 1 Cor. 9: 22; Rev. 5: 9 ("out of," not "all" of).

(4) It would be impossible to "watch" and "wait" for an event which we knew could not occur for more than one thousand years.]
THE TWO RESURRECTIONS

The Word of Truth teaches in the clearest and most positive terms that all of the dead will be raised. No doctrine of the faith rests upon a more literal and emphatic body of Scripture authority than this, nor is any more vital to Christianity.

But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen. And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. 1 Cor. 15: 13, 14.

But it is important to observe that the Scriptures do not teach that all the dead are raised at one time. A partial resurrection of saints has already occurred.

And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, and came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many. Matt. 27: 52, 53.

Two resurrections, differing in respect of time, and of those who are the subjects of the resurrection, are yet future. These are variously distinguished as "of life," and "of damnation;" as "of the just," etc. The Scriptures bearing upon this important subject are as follows:

Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto THE RESURRECTION OF LIFE; and they that have done evil, unto THE RESURRECTION OF DAMNATION. John 5: 28, 29.

If it be objected that the word "hour" would indicate a simultaneous resurrection of these two classes, it is answered that the "hour" of verse 25 has already lasted eighteen hundred years. (See, also, "day," in 2 Pet. 3: 8; 2 Cor. 6: 2; John 8: 56.)

But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: and thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at THE RESURRECTION OF THE JUST. Luke 14: 13, 14.

In this passage our Lord speaks of the first resurrection only. In the 15th of 1 Corinthians the distinction still further appears:

For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

But every man in his own order. Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's, at his coming. 1 Cor. 15: 22, 23.

But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so THEM ALSO WHICH SLEEP IN Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the arch-angel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first. 1 Thess. 4:13-16.

This "resurrection of life," of "the just," of "the dead in Christ," is that of which Paul speaks in Phil. 3:11. R.V.

If by any means I may attain unto the resurrection from the dead. (Not "of the dead," as in A.V. The resurrection of the dead would imply that all the dead were raised simultaneously: "from the dead" necessarily implies a selection—that some of "the dead" remain. Literally, it is "the resurrection out of the dead ones." The Emphatic Diaglott has "from among the dead." Rotherham, "the out-resurrection, that from among the dead."

If the Apostle had in mind a resurrection of all the dead, how could he speak of attaining it "by any means," since he could not possibly escape it?

In Revelation 20:4-6 the two resurrections are again mentioned together, with the important addition of the time which intervenes between the resurrection of the saved and of the unsaved.

And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

Verses 12 and 13 describe the second resurrection—that "unto damnation."

The testimony of Scripture, then, is clear that believers' bodies are raised from among the bodies of unbelievers, and caught up to meet the Lord in the air one thousand years before the resurrection of the latter. It should be firmly held that the doctrine of the resurrections concerns only the bodies of the dead. Their disembodied spirits are instantly in conscious bliss or woe. Phil. 1:23; 2 Cor. 5:8; Luke 16:22, 23.
THE FIVE JUDGMENTS

THE expression, "general judgment," of such frequent occurrence in religious literature, is not found in the Scriptures, and, what is of more importance, the idea intended to be conveyed by that expression is not found in the Scriptures.

Dr. Pentecost well says: "It is a mischievous habit that has led the Christian world to speak of the Judgment as being one great event, taking place at the end of the world, when all human beings, saints, sinners, Jews and Gentiles, the living and the dead, shall stand up before the 'Great White Throne' and there be judged. Nothing can be more wide of the teaching of the Scriptures."

The Scriptures speak of five judgments, and these will be found to differ in four general respects: (1) In respect of those who are the subjects of judgment; (2) in respect of the place of judgment; (3) in respect of the time of judgment; and (4) in respect of the result of the judgment.

And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: WHERE THEY CRUCIFIED HIM. John 19: 17, 18.

For Christ also HATH once suffered for SINS, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God. 1 Pet. 3: 18.

Christ HATH redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth upon a tree. Gal. 3: 13.

For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Cor. 5: 21.

But now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to PUT AWAY SIN by the sacrifice of himself. Heb. 9: 26.

When he had by HIMSELF purged OUR SINS. Heb. 1: 3.

There is therefore now NO CONDEMNATION to them that are in Christ Jesus. Rom. 8: 1. R. V.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth him that sent me, HATH eternal life, AND COMETH NOT INTO JUDGMENT, but hath passed out of death into life. John 5: 24. R. V.

The word translated "judgment" in this passage ("condemnation" in the common version) is the same word rendered "judgment" in Matt.
10: 15; Heb. 9: 27; 2 Pet. 2: 4. An entirely different word is used in 2 Cor. 5: 10, where the judgment of our works as believers is referred to.

2. SELF IN THE BELIEVER MUST BE JUDGED.

For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we are CHASTENED of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. 1 Cor. 11: 31, 32.

If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? Heb. 12: 7.

See, also, 1 Pet. 4: 17; 1 Cor. 5: 5; 2 Sam. 7: 14, 15; 2 Sam. 12: 13, 14; 1 Tim. 1: 20.

3. THE WORKS OF BELIEVERS ARE TO BE JUDGED.—Time, When Christ comes. Place, "In the air." Result, to the believer, "Reward" or "Loss"—"but he himself shall be saved."

It is a solemn thought that, though Christ bore our sins in His own body on the tree, and God has entered into covenant with us to "remember them no more" (Heb. 10: 17), every work must come into judgment.

Wherefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well-pleasing unto Him. For we must all be made manifest before the judgment-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 2 Cor. 5: 9, 10. Revised Version.

But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at naught thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ. Rom. 14: 10.

It will be observed that both of these passages are limited by the context to believers. In the first the Apostle has just written of us as in one of two states: either we are at home in the body and absent from the Lord, or absent from the body and present with the Lord, language which could not be used of unbelievers. "Wherefore we make it our aim" in either place—with the Lord, or in the body—to please Him, "for we must all be made manifest," etc. 2 Cor. 5: 8, 9.

In the other passage the words "we" and "brother" limit it to believers. The Holy Spirit never so commingles the saved and the lost. Then, lest it should seem incredible that a blood-cleansed saint could come into any judgment whatever, he quotes from Isaiah to prove that "every knee shall bow," etc., and adds, "So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God."

The following passage gives the basis of the Judgment of Works.

For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. 1 Cor. 3:11-15.

The following passages fix the time of this judgment.

For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father, with his angels, and then he shall reward every man according to his works. Matt. 16:27.

And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just. Luke 14:14 (see 1 Cor. 15:22, 23).

Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God. 1 Cor. 4:5.

(It is very comforting, in view of that inevitable scrutiny of our poor botch-work, to learn that in His patient love He is so leading us now as that He can then find something in it all for which to praise us.)

Behold I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Rev. 22:12.

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day. 2 Tim. 4:8.

The place of this judgment, 1 Thess. 4:16, 17. See, also Matt. 25:24-30.

4. THE NATIONS ARE TO BE JUDGED.—

Place. Joel 3:1, 2, 12-14.

Basis. Treatment of those whom Christ there calls, "My brethren." Matt. 25:40, 45; Joel 3:3, 6, 7. These "brethren" are believed to be the Jewish Remnant who have turned to Jesus as their Messiah during "the great tribulation" which follows the taking away of the Church, and is terminated by the glorious appearing of our Lord. Matt. 24:21, 22; Rev. 7:14. R. V.; 2 Thess. 2:3-9. R. V. The proof is too extensive to be adduced here. It is evident, however, that these "brethren" cannot be believers of this dispensation, for it would be impossible to find any considerable number of Christians who are so ignorant that they do not know that offices of kindness to believers are really ministries to Jesus Himself.

As this judgment of the Living Nations is sometimes confounded with that of the "great white throne," in Rev. 20: 11, it may be well to note the following contrasts between the two scenes.

Living Nations.

- No resurrection.
- Living nations judged.
- On the earth.
- No books.
- Three classes—sheep, goats, "brethren."
- Time, when Christ appears.

Great White Throne.

- A resurrection.
- "The dead" judged.
- Heavens and earth fled away.
- "Books were opened."
- One class—"the dead."
- After He has reigned 1000 years.

The saints will be associated with Christ in this judgment, and hence cannot be the subjects of it. See 1 Cor. 6: 2, with Dan. 7: 22 and Jude 14, 15.

In truth, the judgment of the Great White Throne and the judgment of the Living Nations have but one thing in common—the Judge.

5. THE WICKED DEAD ARE TO BE JUDGED.

—Time, A determined day, after the Millennium. Acts 17: 31; Rev. 20: 5, 7.

Place, Before "the great white throne." Rev. 20: 11.

Result. Rev. 20: 15.

[Note.—The Scriptures speak, also, of a judgment of angels. 1 Cor. 6: 3; Jude 6; 2 Pet. 2: 4. Luke 22: 30 probably refers to Judges as under the Theocracy—an administrative office, rather than judicial. See Isaiah 1: 26.]

Some may be troubled by the word "day" in such passages as Acts 17: 31 and in Rom. 2: 16. See the following passages, where "day" means a lengthened period: 2 Pet. 3: 8; 2 Cor. 6: 2; John 8: 56. The "hour" of John 5: 25 has now lasted more than eighteen hundred years.
LAW AND GRACE

The most obvious and striking division of the word of truth is that between Law and Grace. Indeed, these contrasting principles characterize the two most important Dispensations—the Jewish and Christian.

For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. John 1: 17.

It is not, of course, meant that there was no law before Moses, any more than that there was no grace and truth before Jesus Christ. The forbidding to Adam of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil (Gen. 2: 17) was law, and surely grace was most sweetly manifested in the seeking, by the Lord God, of His sinning creatures, and in His clothing them with coats of skins (Gen. 3: 21)—a beautiful type of Christ “made unto us . . . righteousness.” 1 Cor. 1: 30. Law, in the sense of some revelation of God’s will, and grace, in the sense of some revelation of God’s goodness, have always existed, and to this Scripture abundantly testifies. But “the law” everywhere mentioned in Scripture was given by Moses and, from Sinai to Calvary, dominates—characterizes, the time; just as grace dominates, or gives its peculiar character to, the dispensation which begins at Calvary, and has its predicted termination in the rapture of the Church.

It is, however, of the most vital moment to observe that Scripture never, in any dispensation, mingles these two principles. Law always has a place and work distinct and wholly diverse from that of grace. Law is God prohibiting and requiring; grace is God beseeching and bestowing. Law is a ministry of condemnation; grace, of forgiveness. Law curses; grace redeems from that curse. Law kills; grace makes alive. Law shuts every mouth before God; grace opens every mouth to praise Him. Law puts a great and guilty distance between man and God; grace makes guilty man nigh to God. Law says, “An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth;” grace says, “Resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.” Law says, “Hate thine enemy;” grace, “Love your enemies, bless them that despitefully use you.” Law says, do and live; grace, believe and live. Law never had a missionary; grace is to be preached to every creature. Law utterly condemns the best man; grace freely justifies the worst. (Luke 23: 43; Rom. 5: 5; 1 Tim. 1: 15; 1 Cor. 6: 9-11.) Law is a system of probation; grace, of favor. Law stones an adulteress; grace says, “Neither do I condemn thee.” Under law the sheep dies for the shepherd; under grace the Shepherd dies for the sheep.
Everywhere the Scriptures present law and grace in sharply contrasted spheres. The mingling of them in much of the current teaching of the day spoils both, for law is robbed of its terror, and grace of its freeness.

The student should observe that "law," in the New Testament Scriptures, always means the law given by Moses (Rom. 7: 23 is the only exception); but sometimes the whole law, moral, so-called, (or the Ten Commandments), and ceremonial, is meant: sometimes the commandments only; sometimes the ceremonial law only. Of the first class of passages, Rom. 6: 14; Gal. 2: 16, and 3: 2 are examples. Of the second class, Rom. 3: 19 and 7: 7-12 are examples. Of the third class, Col. 2: 14-17.

It should be remembered, also, that in the ceremonial law are enshrined those marvellous types—the beautiful foreshadowings of the Person and work of the Lord Jesus as Priest and Sacrifice, which must ever be the wonder and delight of the spiritually minded. Expressions in the Psalms which would be inexplicable if understood only of the "ministration of death written and engraven in stones" (2 Cor. 3: 7) are made clear when seen to refer also to the types—those lovely pictures of grace:

But his delight is in the law of theLord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. Psa. 1: 2.
The modern form of this error is the teaching that Christian ordinances are essential to salvation.

3. GALATIANISM, or the mingling of law and grace—the teaching that justification is partly by grace, partly by law; or, that grace is given to enable an otherwise helpless sinner to keep the law.

Against this error, the most widespread of all, the solemn warnings, the unanswerable logic, the emphatic declarations of the Epistle to the Galatians are God's conclusive answer.

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect in the flesh? Gal. 3: 2, 3.

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: which is not another [there could not be another Gospel]; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. Gal. 1: 6-8.

The following may be helpful as an outline of Scripture teaching on this important subject. The moral law only is referred to in the passages cited:

1. WHAT THE LAW IS.
   Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. Rom. 7: 12.
   For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. Rom. 7: 14.
   For I delight in the law of God after the inward man. Rom. 7: 22.
   But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully. 1 Tim. 1: 8.

   And the law is not of faith. Gal. 3: 12.

2. THE LAWFUL USE OF THE LAW.
   What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet. Rom. 7: 7; see, also, 13.

   Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Rom. 3: 20.

   Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions. Gal. 3: 19.

   Now we know, that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Rom. 3: 19.

   [Law has but one language—"what things soever." It speaks only to condemn.]

   For as many as are of the works of the law,
ARE UNDER THE CURSE: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. Gal. 3: 10.

For WHOSOEVER shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is GUILTY of all. James 2: 10.

"The MINISTRATION OF DEATH, written and engraven in stones." 2 Cor. 3: 7.

"The ministration of CONDEMNATION." 2 Cor. 3: 9.

For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I DIED. Rom. 7: 9.

The strength of sin is the law. 1 Cor. 15: 56.

It is evident, then, that God's purpose in giving the law, after the race had existed twenty-five hundred years without it (John 1: 17; Gal. 3: 17), was to bring to guilty man the knowledge of his sin, first, and then of his utter helplessness in view of God's just requirements. It is purely and only a ministration of condemnation and death.

3. WHAT THE LAW CANNOT DO.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Rom. 3: 20.

Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. Gal. 2: 16.

I do not frustrate the GRACE OF GOD: for if righteousness come by the law, THEN CHRIST IS DEAD IN VAIN. Gal. 2: 21.

But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. Gal. 3: 11.

For what the law COULD NOT DO, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh. Rom. 8: 3.

And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Acts 13: 39.

For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by which we draw nigh unto God. Heb. 7: 19.

4. THE BELIEVER IS NOT UNDER THE LAW.

The 6th of Romans, after declaring the doctrine of the believer's identification with Christ in His death, of which baptism is the symbol (verses 1-10), begins, with verse 11, the declarations of the principles which should govern the walk of the believer—his rule of life. This is the subject of the remaining twelve verses; verse 14 gives the great principle of his deliverance from—not the guilt of sin, that is met by Christ's blood but—the dominion of sin; his bondage under it.

"For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are NOT UNDER THE LAW, but UNDER GRACE."

Lest this should lead to the monstrous Antinomianism of saying that therefore a godly life was not important, the Spirit immediately adds:

What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid. Rom. 6: 15.

Surely every renewed heart answers Amen, and Amen!

Then the 7th of Romans introduces another principle of deliverance from law.

Wherefore, my brethren, ye also ARE BECOME DEAD TO THE LAW by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God. For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members, to bring forth fruit unto death. But now WE ARE DELIVERED FROM THE LAW, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should SERVE IN NEWNESS OF SPIRIT, AND NOT IN THE OLDNESS OF THE LETTER. Rom. 7: 4-6. (That this does not refer to the ceremonial law, see verse 7.)
Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; and WALK IN LOVE, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us. Eph. 5: 1, 2.

For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: WALK AS CHILDREN OF LIGHT. Eph. 5: 8.

See then that ye WALK CIRCUMSPECTLY, not as fools, but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Eph. 5: 15, 16.

This I say then, WALK IN THE SPIRIT, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. Gal. 5: 16.

For I have given you an example, that ye should DO AS I HAVE DONE to you. John 13: 15.

If ye keep MY commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my FATHER'S commandments, and abide in his love. John 15: 10.

This is MY commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you. John 15: 12.

He that hath MY commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me. John 14: 21.

And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep HIS commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight. And this is his commandment, That we should BELIEVE ON THE NAME OF HIS SON JESUS CHRIST, AND LOVE ONE ANOTHER, AS HE GAVE US COMMANDMENT. 1 John 3: 22, 23.

This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord; I WILL PUT MY LAWS INTO THEIR HEARTS, and in their minds will I write them. Heb. 10: 16.

A beautiful illustration of this principle is seen in mother-love. The law of the commonwealth requires parents to care for their offspring, and denounces penalties for the wilful neglect of them, but the land is full of happy mothers who tenderly care for their children in perfect ignorance of the existence of such a statute. The law is in their hearts.

It is instructive, in this connection, to remember that God's appointed place for the tables of the law was within the ark of the testimony. With them were "the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded" (types, the one of Christ our wilderness bread, the other of resurrection, and both speaking of grace), while they were covered from sight by the golden mercy-seat upon which was sprinkled the blood of atonement. The eye of God could see His broken law only through the blood that completely vindicated His justice, and propitiated His wrath. Heb. 9: 4, 5.

It was reserved to modern nomolaters to wrench these holy and just but deathful tables from underneath the mercy-seat and the atoning blood, and erect them in Christian churches as the rule of Christian life.
6. WHAT IS GRACE?

That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace, in HIS KINDNESS TOWARD US THROUGH CHRIST JESUS. Eph. 2: 7.

. WHAT IS GOD'S PURPOSE IN GRACE?

For by grace are ye SAVED through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God: not of works, let any man should boast. Eph. 2: 8, 9.

For the grace of God that bringeth SALVATION hath appeared to all men, teaching us, that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Titus 2: 11-13.
That, being JUSTIFIED by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Titus 3: 7.
Being JUSTIFIED freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. Rom. 3: 24.
By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we STAND. Rom. 5: 2.

And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to BUILD YOU UP, and to GIVE YOU AN INHERITANCE among all them which are sanctified. Acts 20: 32.
To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us ACCEPTED in the Beloved: in whom we have REDEMPTION through his blood, the FORGIVENESS of sins, according to the riches of his grace. Eph. 1: 6, 7.
Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain MERCY, and find grace to HELP in time of need. Heb. 4: 16.

How complete, how all-inclusive! Grace saves, justifies, builds up, makes accepted, redeems, forgives, bestows an inheritance, gives standing, provides a throne to which we may come boldly for mercy and help, teaches us how to live, and gives us a blessed hope!

It remains to note that these diverse principles cannot be intermingled.

And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. Rom. 11: 6.
Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Rom. 4: 4, 5. See, also, Gal. 3: 16-18; 4: 21-31.

Finally:

So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, but of the free. Gal. 4: 31.

For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words: which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more: (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart: And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

But ye are come unto Mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and church of the first-born, which are written in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. Heb. 12: 18-24.

It is not, then, a question of dividing what God spoke from Sinai into "Moral" and "Ceremonial"—the believer does not come to that mount at all.

As sound old Bunyan says:

"The believer is now, by faith in the Lord Jesus, shrouded under so perfect and blessed a righteousness, that this thundering law of Mount Sinai cannot find the least fault or diminution therein. THIS IS CALLED THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF GOD WITHOUT THE LAW."

[Should this meet the eye of an unbeliever, he is affectionately exhorted to accept the true sentence of that holy and just law which he has violated: "For there is no difference: for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" (Rom. 3: 22, 23), and find perfect and eternal salvation through believing with the heart and confessing with the mouth that Christ who is "the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." Rom. 10: 4, 8, 9.]
THE SCRIPTURES TEACH THAT EVERY REGENERATE BEING IS THE POSSESSOR OF TWO NATURES: ONE, RECEIVED BY NATURAL BIRTH, WHICH IS WHOLLY AND HOPELESSLY BAD, AND A NEW NATURE, RECEIVED THROUGH THE NEW BIRTH, WHICH IS THE NATURE OF GOD HIMSELF, AND THEREFORE WHOLLY GOOD.

THE FOLLOWING SCRIPTURES WILL SUFFICIENTLY MANIFEST WHAT GOD THINKS OF THE OLD, OR ADAM, NATURE:

BEHOLD, I WAS SHAPEN IN INIQUITY, AND IN SIN DID MY MOTHER CONCEIVE ME. Psa. 51: 5.

THE HEART IS DECEITFUL ABOVE ALL THINGS, AND DESPERATELY WICKED: WHO CAN KNOW IT? JER. 17: 9. [DR. YOUNG’S LITERAL RENDERING OF THIS PASSAGE IS: “CROOKED IS THE HEART ABOVE ALL THINGS, AND IT IS INCURABLE—WHO DOTH KNOW IT?”]

THERE IS NONE RIGHTEOUS, NO, NOT ONE: THERE IS NONE THAT UNDERSTANDETH, THERE IS NONE THAT SEEKETH AFTER GOD. THEY ARE ALL GONE OUT OF THE WAY, THEY ARE TOGETHER BECOME UNPROFITABLE; THERE IS NONE THAT DOETH GOOD, NO, NOT ONE. ROM. 3: 10-12.

IT IS ONE OF THE SOREST OF FAITH’S TRIALS TO ACCEPT THE DIVINE ESTIMATE OF HUMAN NATURE; TO REALIZE THAT OUR GENIAL AND MORAL FRIENDS, WHO, NOT INFREQUENTLY, ARE SCRUPULOUS IN THE DISCHARGE OF EVERY DUTY, WHO ARE FILLED WITH SYMPATHY FOR ALL THE WOES AND ALL THE ASPIRATIONS OF HUMANITY, AND STRENUEUS IN THE ASSERTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS, ARE YET UTTER CONTEMNERS OF GOD’S RIGHTS, AND UNTOUCHED BY THE SACRIFICE OF HIS SON, Whose Divinity they with unspeakable insolence deny, and whose Word they contumeliously reject. A Refined and gentle lady who would shrink with horror from the coarseness of giving a fellow-creature the lie, will yet make God a liar every day. (1 JOHN 1: 10; 5:10.) AND THIS DIFFICULTY IS VASTLY INCREASED FOR THOUSANDS BY THE CURRENT PULPIT LAUDATIONS OF HUMANITY. HOW STARTLING THE CONTRAST BETWEEN APPEARANCES AND REALITIES IN THE TIME BEFORE THE FLOOD.

AND SO IT APPEARED THAT THE WORLD WAS GROWING BETTER, A CONTINUAL IMPROVEMENT COULD BE TRACED, AND THE APPARENT RESULT OF THE UNHOLY INTERMARRIAGE OF THE GODLY WITH THE WORLDLY WAS the lifting up of human nature to still grander heights.

But, just here:

GOD SAW that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. Gen. 6: 5.

See, further:

For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: all these evil things come from within, and defile the man. Mark 7: 21-23.

But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 1 Cor. 2: 14.

Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. Rom. 8: 7, 8.

Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath. Eph. 2: 3.

By these it appears that the unconverted man has a threefold incapacity. He may be gifted, or cultured, or amiable, or generous, or religious. He may pay his honest debts, be truthful, industrious, a good husband and father—or all these together—but he can neither obey God, please God, nor understand God.

The believer, on the contrary, while still having, unchanged and unchangeable, his old nature, has received a new nature which, “after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.”

The following Scriptures will show the origin and character of the new man:

It will be seen that regeneration is a creation, not a mere transformation: the bringing in of a new thing, not the change of an old. Just as we receive human nature by natural generation do we receive the divine nature by re-generation.

Verily, verily, I say unto thee (Nicodemus, a moral, religious man), Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. John 3: 3.

But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. John 1: 12, 13.

For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. Gal. 3: 26.

[It will be observed what bearing these Scriptures have upon that specious and “taking” but utterly unscriptural phrase, so popular in our day, "the universal fatherhood of God, and the universal brotherhood of man"—an expression all the more dangerous for the half-truth of the last clause. Not all who are born, but all who are born again are the children of God. The Scripture tells us indeed that Adam was the son of God, but it also is careful to add that Seth was the son of Adam.] (Luke 3: 38.)

And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Eph. 4: 24.

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature [literally, "a new creation"]: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. 2 Cor. 5: 17.

And this "new man" is Christ Himself.

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. 2: 20.

To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. 1: 27.

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ who is our life shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Col. 3: 3, 4.

For to me to live is Christ. Phil. 1: 21.

Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises; that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature. 2 Pet. 1: 4.

And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness Rom. 8: 10.

And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son, hath life: and he that hath not the Son of God, hath not life. 1 John 5: 11, 12.

But this new, divine nature, which is Christ's own, subsists in the believer together with the old nature. It is the same Paul who could say, "Yet not I, but Christ liveth in me," who also says, "For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh), dwelleth no good thing," Rom. 7: 18, and, "I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me." Rom. 7: 21. It was Job, the "perfect and upright man," who said, "I abhor myself." It was Daniel, eminently a man of God, who said, "My comeliness was turned in me into corruption," when he saw the glorified Ancient of Days.

Between these two natures there is conflict. Study carefully the battle between the two "I's"—the old Saul and the new Paul in Romans 7: 14-25. It is an experience like this which so discourages and perplexes young converts. The first joy of conversion becomes chilled, the walk becomes unwatchful, and the convert is dismayed to find the flesh, with its old habits and desires, reassert itself, and he is led to doubt his acceptance with God. This is his moment of greatest danger. Paul, in this crisis, cries out for deliverance, calling his old nature a "body of death." The law only intensifies his agony (though a converted man), and he finds deliverance from "flesh," not through effort, nor through striving to keep the law, but "through Jesus Christ our Lord." Rom. 7: 24, 25.

The presence of the flesh is not, however, an excuse for walking in it. We are taught that "our old man is crucified with Christ;" that, in that sense, we "are dead," and we are called upon to make this a constant experience by mortifying ("making dead") our members which are upon the earth.

The power for this is that of the Holy Spirit who dwells in every believer (1 Cor. 6. 19), and whose blessed office it is to subdue the flesh.

But I say, Walk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; that ye may not do the things that ye would. Gal. 5: 16, 17. R. V. For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. Rom. 8: 13.

Instead, therefore, of meeting the solicitations of the old nature by force of will, or by good resolutions, turn the conflict over to the indwelling Spirit of God.

The 7th of Romans is a record of the conflict of a regenerate man with his old self, and is, therefore, intensely personal. "I would," "I do not," "I would not, I do," is the sad confession of defeat which finds an echo in so many Christian hearts. In the eighth chapter the conflict still goes on, but how blessedly impersonal! There is no agony, for Paul is out of it; the conflict is now between "flesh"—Saul of Tarsus—and the Holy Spirit. Paul is at peace and victorious.

[It will be understood that this refers to victory over the flesh, such inward solicitations to evil as lust, pride, anger, etc.; temptations from without are met by recourse to Christ our High Priest.]

Consider attentively the following passages:

Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Rom. 6: 6.

For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. Phil. 3: 3.
For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. Col. 3: 3.
Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. 6: 11.
But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lust thereof. Rom. 13: 14.
Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. Rom. 8: 12.

A DISTINCTION of vast importance to the right understanding of the Scriptures, especially of the Epistles, is that which concerns the standing or position of the believer, and his state, or walk. The first is the result of the work of Christ, and is perfect and entire from the very moment that Christ is received by faith. Nothing in the after-life of the believer adds in the smallest degree to his title to God's favor, nor to his perfect security. Faith alone confers standing in God's sight, and before Him the weakest, most ignorant, most infirm and fallible man on earth, if he be but a true believer on the Lord Jesus Christ, has precisely the same title as the most illustrious saint.
What that title, or standing, is may be briefly seen from the following Scriptures:
But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the SONS OF GOD, even to them that believe on his name. John 1: 12.
Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ, is BORN OF GOD. 1 John 5: 11.
And if children, then heirs; HEIRS OF GOD, AND JOINT HEIRS WITH CHRIST. Rom. 8: 17.
To AN INHERITANCE incorruptible, and undeviled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith. 1 Pet. 1: 4, 5.

In whom also we HAVE OBTAINED AN INHERITANCE. Eph. 1: 11.

Beloved, now are we the SONS OF GOD; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, WE SHALL BE LIKE HIM. 1 John 3: 2.

But ye are a CHOSEN GENERATION, a ROYAL PRIESTHOOD, an holy nation. 1 Pet. 2: 9.

Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and HATH made us KINGS AND PRIESTS unto God and his Father. Rev. 1: 5, 6.

And ye are COMPLETE IN HIM, which is the head of all principality and power. Col. 2: 10.

Therefore BEING JUSTIFIED by faith, we have PEACE WITH GOD through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access by faith into this GRACE WHEREIN WE STAND, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Rom. 5: 1, 2.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have ETERNAL LIFE. John 3: 16. R. V.

These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may KNOW THAT YE HAVE ETERNAL LIFE. 1 John 5: 13.

Having therefore, brethren, BOLDNESS TO ENTER INTO THE HOLIEST by the blood of Jesus. Heb. 10: 19.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who HATH BLESSED US WITH ALL SPIRITUAL BLESSINGS. Eph. 1: 3.

To the praise of the glory of his grace, where-in he HATH MADE US ACCEPTED IN THE BELOVED. Eph. 1: 6.

But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and HATH RAISED US UP TOGETHER, AND MADE US SIT TOGETHER IN HEAVENLY PLACES IN CHRIST JESUS. Eph. 2: 4-6.

But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off, are MADE NIGH by the blood of Christ. Eph. 2: 13.

In whom also, after that ye believed, ye were SEALED with that Holy Spirit of promise. Eph. 1: 13.

For by one Spirit are we ALL BAPTIZED INTO ONE BODY. 1 Cor. 12: 13.

For we are MEMBERS OF HIS BODY, OF HIS FLESH, AND OF HIS BONES. Eph. 5: 30.

What? know ye not that your body is the TEMPLE OF THE HOLY GHOST? 1 Cor. 6: 19.

Every one of these marvelous things is true of every believer on the Lord Jesus Christ. Not one item in this glorious inventory is said to be gained by prayer, or by diligence in service, or by church-going, or by alms-giving, or self-denial, or holiness of life, or by any other description of good works. All is the gift of God, through Christ, to faith, and therefore belongs equally to all believers. The very instant that the brutal jailer of Philippi believed on the Lord Jesus Christ he became a son of God, a joint heir with Christ, a king and priest, and the owner of an incorruptible, undefiled, and unfading inheritance. In the instant that he believed with his heart and confessed with his mouth, Jesus as Lord, he was justified from all things, had peace with God, a standing in His grace, and a sure hope of glory. He received the gift of eternal life, was made accepted in the full measure of Christ's own acceptance, was sealed with the Holy Spirit, indwelt by the Holy Spirit, and was baptized into the mystical body of Christ. Instantly he was clothed with the righteousness of God (Rom. 3:22), quickened with Christ, raised with Him, and seated with Him in the heavenlies.

What his actual state may have been is quite another matter; certainly it was far, far below his exalted standing in the sight of God. It was not at once that he became as royal, priestly, and heavenly in walk as he was at once in standing. The following passages will indicate the way these two things are constantly discriminated in the Scriptures:

Standing.

Into the Church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints... I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ; that in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge; even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you; so that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ: who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ. 1 Cor. 1:2-9.

But ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Cor. 6:11.

Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? 1 Cor. 6:15.

State.

For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. 1 Cor. 1:11.

And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal. ... For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? 1 Cor. 3:1-3.

Now some are puffed up. 1 Cor. 4:18.

And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. 1 Cor. 5:2.

Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. 1 Cor. 6:7.

Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? 1 Cor. 6:15.
And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in Heaven. Matt. 16: 17.

Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son. Col. 1: 12, 13.

The student cannot fail to notice, also, that the Divine order, under grace, is first to give the highest possible standing and then to exhort the believer to maintain a state in accordance therewith. The beggar is lifted up from the dung-hill and set among princes (1 Sam. 2: 8), and then exhorted to be princely. As examples, see:

Standing.
Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed. Rom. 6: 6.

State.
Wherefore, if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordnances? (Col. 2: 20).

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Matt. 5: 16.

Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. Phil 2: 12.

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Col. 3: 1.

Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth. Col. 3: 5.

Walk as children of light. Eph. 5: 8.

Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of darkness. Eph. 5: 8.

Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let...
Standing.

the night, nor of darkness. 1 Thess. 5: 5.

For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. 1 Thess. 5: 9, 10.

By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. Heb. 10: 10.

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us . . . sanctification. 1 Cor. 1: 30.

For by one offering he hath perfected forever them that are sanctified. Heb. 10: 10.

Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded. Phil. 3: 15.

Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world. 1 John 4: 17.

State.

us watch and be sober. 1 Thess. 5: 6.

Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do. 1 Thess. 5: 11.

Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. John 17: 17.

And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly. 1 Thess. 5: 23.

Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect. Phil. 3: 12.

Therefore, leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection. Heb. 6: 1.

He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. 1 John 2: 6.

The student will be able to add largely to this list of comparative passages showing that the Scripture makes a clear distinction between the standing and state of the believer. It will be seen that he is not under probation to see if he is worthy of an inconceivably exalted position, but, beginning with the confession of utter unworthiness, receives the position wholly as the result of Christ's work. Positionally he is "perfected forever" (Heb. 10: 14), but looking within, at his state, he must say "not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect." Phil. 3: 12.

It may be said that all the after-work of God in his behalf, the application of the Word to his walk and conscience (John 17: 17; Eph. 5: 26), the chastisements of the Father's hand (Heb. 12: 10; 1 Cor. 11: 32), the ministry of the Spirit (Eph. 4: 11, 12), all the difficulties and trials of the wilderness way (1 Pet. 4: 12-14), and the final transformation when He shall appear (1 John 3: 2), all are intended simply to bring the believer's character into perfect conformity to the position which is his in the instant of his conversion. He grows in grace, indeed, but not into grace.

The present King of Spain is a little child—presumably as wilful and as ignorant as other little children. Sometimes he may be very obedient and teachable and affectionate, and then he is happy and approved. At other times he may be unruly, self-willed, and disobedient, and then he is unhappy and perhaps is chastised—but he is just as much King on the one day as on the other. It may be hoped that, as time goes on, he will learn to bring himself into willing and affectionate submission to every right way, and then he will be more kingly, but not any more really King. He was born a King.

In the case of every true son of the King of kings, and Lord of lords, this growth into kinglyness is assured. In the end, standing and state, character and position, will be equal. But the position is not the reward of the perfected character—the character is developed from the position.

SALVATION AND REWARDS

The New Testament Scriptures contain a doctrine of salvation for the LOST, and a doctrine of rewards for the faithful services of the SAVED; and it is of great importance to the right understanding of the Word that the student shall comprehend the distinction between these. What that distinction is may be seen by carefully noting the following contrasts:

1. Salvation is a Free Gift.

   Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the GIFT of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have GIVEN thee living water. John 4: 10.

   Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price. Isa. 55: 1.

   And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come: and whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Rev. 22: 17.

   For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. 6: 23.
For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast. Eph. 2: 8, 9. But in contrast with the freeness of Salvation note that,

REWARDS ARE Earned By Works.

And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. Matt. 10: 42.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness. 2 Tim. 4: 7, 8.

And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Rev. 22: 12.

Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. 1 Cor. 9: 24, 25.

And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant; because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. Luke 19: 17.

For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. 1 Cor. 3: 11-15.

Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Rev. 2: 10.

[Not “life”—the Smyrna saints had this—but a “crown of life.” Crowns are symbols of rewards—of distinctions earned. It may be remarked that four crowns are mentioned: that of joy, or rejoicing, the reward of ministry (Phil. 4: 1; 1 Thess. 2: 19); of righteousness, the reward of faithfulness in testimony (2 Tim. 4: 8); of life, the reward of faithfulness under trial (James 1: 12; Rev. 2: 10); and of glory, the reward of faithfulness under suffering. (1 Pet. 5: 4; Heb. 2: 9.)]
2. Salvation is a Present Possession.

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life. John 3:36.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and cometh not into judgment, but hath passed out of death into life. John 5:24. R. V.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. John 6:47.

Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace. 2 Tim. 1:9.

And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace. Luke 7:50.

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Titus 3:5.

And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 1 John 5:11. But,

Rewards are a Future Attainment.

For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father, with his angels, and then shall he reward every man according to his works. Matt. 16:27.

And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Rev. 22:12.

And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. 1 Pet. 5:4.

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day. 2 Tim. 4:8.

After a long time the Lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them. Matt. 25:19.

God's purpose in promising to reward with heavenly and eternal honors the faithful service of His saints is to win them from the pursuit of earthly riches and pleasures, to sustain them in the fires of persecution, and to encourage them in the exercise of Christian virtues. See,

Finally, let us heed the warning.—Rev. 3:11.
BELIEVERS AND PROFESSORS

Ever since God has had a people of His own on this earth they have been sorely troubled by the presence among them of those who professed to be, but were not, of them. Beginning under the very gate of Eden, this state of things will continue until “the Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity . . . THEN shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father.” Matt. 13: 41-43.

The recognition by Scripture of this mingling of tares and wheat—of mere professors among true believers—greatly confuses many students of the Word, who apply to the children of God the warnings and exhortations meant only for the self-deceived or hypocritical.

It is impossible, in a brief Bible-reading, to refer to all the passages which discriminate true believers from the mass of mere formalists, hypocrites, and the deceived legalists who are working FOR their own salvation, instead of working OUT a salvation already received as a free gift. (See Phil. 2: 12, 13, with Eph. 2: 8, 9.)

The following, however, will sufficiently indicate the lines of demarcation:

1. BELIEVERS ARE SAVED, PROFESSORS ARE LOST.

Compare:

And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace. Luke 7: 50. Then Simon himself believed also; and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip. But Peter said unto him . . . Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. Acts 8: 13, 21.

And they continued steadfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. Acts 2: 42. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. 1 John 2: 19.

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they

When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry follow me: and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. John 10:27-29.

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day. John 6:37,39.

And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Matt. 25: 10.

But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him. And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father. From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. John 6:64-66.

Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, places seeking rest, and findeth none. Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there, and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Matt. 12: 43-45.

And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: and he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness. Matt. 22: 11-13.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me hath everlasting life. John 6: 47.

I know you not. Matt. 25: 11, 12.

Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers! how can ye escape the damnation of hell? Matt. 23: 28, 33.

And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: and he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness. Matt. 22: 11-13.
Father, I WILL that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. John 17: 24.

Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phil. 1: 6.

But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition, but of them that believe to the saving of the soul. Heb. 10: 39.

* Probably this passage, more than any other in the Bible, has been perverted to the distress of children of God, between whom and this supposititious "taster" there is no real likeness. The text shows how very far tentative profession may be imagined to go, and yet fall short of entire surrender to Christ, which alone is conversion. Verse 9 ought to guard true believers against the perversion referred to, for it distinctly states that the things which accompany salvation are "better" than these.

2. BELIEVERS ARE REWARDED, PROFESSORS CONDEMNED.

Compare:

Col. 3: 24 " Matt. 7: 22, 23.

Some texts are not free from difficulty, but with prayer, careful study, and keeping in mind the important rule to never use a doubtful or obscure passage to contradict a clear and positive one, light will surely come. Do not use an "if" to contradict a "verily"—Heb. 6: 6 to contradict John 5: 24.

The cases of Judas Iscariot and of Peter should present no difficulty. Judas was never a believer. See John 6: 68-71. Peter never ceased to be one. Luke 22: 31, 32. R. V.

Finally: It should be ever remembered that these principles are to guide us only in rightly dividing the Word of God, but are never to be applied to living persons. The judgment of professors is not committed to us, but is reserved to the Son of Man.

Study carefully, Matt. 13: 28, 29; 1 Cor. 4: 5.
